Dr. Lorraine J. Haricombe
Dean of the University of Kansas Libraries

A Conversation with Dr. Lorraine J. Haricombe

Lorraine J. Haricombe is dean of the University of Kansas Libraries, which serves more than 25,000 students and 1,300 faculty. One of the founding members of the Coalition of Open Access Policy Institutions, Haricombe also serves as the Provost's designate for open access implementation at the University of Kansas. She is chair of the SPARC Steering Committee, a member of the ARL/AAU Task Force on Scholarly Communication, and she serves on the PubMed Central National Advisory Committee. Prior to joining KU in 2006, she was dean of libraries at Bowling Green State University. She holds doctoral and master's degrees in library and information science from the University of Illinois in Urbana-Champaign.
